BEN VENUE

Thanks to the generosity of the Eastham Family, the Old Dominion Hounds' Point to Point is running its 49th year at Ben Venue. The historic house is over 200 years old. It was built by William Fletcher and his wife Elizabeth Stark Fletcher. The brick house was designed by John Powell, who studied under Thomas Jefferson. The Eastham family has continuously operated the farm since (circa) 1805.

THE ORIGIN OF STEEPLECHASING

The first recorded steeplechase was in early 1752, when two Irishmen matched their hunters for a 4 1/2-mile scramble from Buttevant Church to the Church of St. Leger. The steeple at St. Leger was used as a direction guide and winning post.

From Ireland, steeplechase fever spread quickly to England, where organized hunt clubs took up the sport and gave it a place to grow. By the 1830s, steeplechase racing was second to none on English hunt programs.

Meanwhile, back in the colonies, people such as Lord Thomas Fairfax, who owned 5 million acres in Virginia, and George Washington, who kept a kennel of hounds at Mount Vernon, became interested in fox hunting. Fascination with the sport continued to spread with the formation of American hunt clubs in the early 1800s.

The Friends of The Old Dominion Hounds will make every effort to insure the safety of horses, riders and property. However, the Friends of The Old Dominion Hounds and the owner of Ben Venue Farm, will not be responsible for injury to horses, riders, or spectators, or loss and/or damage of property. A competent physician, veterinarian and blacksmith will be on the grounds.

The Race Meet is sanctioned by the National Steeplechase Association (NSA), but the NSA, its Directors, Officers, employees, and agents shall have no responsibility in connection with the costs, expenses or purse money of the Association conducting the Race Meet or liability to any person arising from injury or damage to person or property arising from attendance at or participation in the Race Meet.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Old Dominion Hounds wish to acknowledge with gratitude the contributions of the following. The generosity and support of these persons and organizations make possible the traditional racing over fences at Ben Venue.

The Eastham family for providing their farm as the classic setting for these races;

All the landowners in the Old Dominion Hounds hunt country who make the great sports of foxhunting and steeplechasing possible;

The Meadow Outdoors Foundation which makes the course brush fences available through cooperative arrangements with the foundation by the kind generosity of the late Laura A. Lawrence;

Those who helped prepare the race course; our deepest gratitude.

We wish to express our special thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Lindsay Eastham for all their work and help in seeing that the race course is in the best condition mother nature will allow.

For your safety and ours, there can be no schooling on the racecourse after the last race without prior permission from the race chairman. Thank you.

GOLDSMITHCOUNTRY OLIVER

The temperament you are looking for in a correct, athletic package.

Imported Irish Draught Stallion, C1 Bronze Merit
By Holycross /Grange Bouncer
Fresh or Frozen Semen Available

Oliver is an enjoyable stallion to be around and can be ridden by a 5 year old girl, handled by a 78 year old woman and hunted iron to iron with a mare. He has a mutli-discipline performance history in Ireland, get proving themselves with merit and has started his US hunting career in Virginia hunt country with multiple packs. A true hunting stallion!

Temperament can't be trained, it can only be bred.

Virginia Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Association

The Virginia HBPA is a non-profit organization that represents thoroughbred owners and trainers who race at Colonial Downs in New Kent, Virginia. Our organization negotiates contracts for race days and purses with Colonial Downs and sponsors benevolent programs for backstretch workers during Colonial's summer meet, which this year is scheduled for July 11th through September 7th.

The Virginia HBPA is pleased to furnish the purse money for steeplechase races at Colonial Downs. Our goal is to encourage and promote flat and steeplechase racing in Virginia, particularly for Virginia bred horses.
